Press Note.

The following communication of the High Commissioner of India in U.K., London, offering advice to non-official visitors of India proposing to visit London for the Coronation of H. M. Queen Elizabeth II and connecting events in London in May and June 1953, is published for general information.

Coronation of H.M. Queen Elizabeth II and Connecting Events, London—May and June 1953.

NON-OFFICIAL VISITORS FROM INDIA.

The High Commissioner has been able and happy to extend in past years to non-official visitors from India the services of his administration when advice or assistance was sought in connection with some problem arising out of their stay. Owing to the immense number of visitors, both official and otherwise, from all parts of the world who are expected to visit England for the Coronation during the Spring and Summer of 1953, special difficulties are expected to be encountered in the matter of accommodation, sea passages to this country and back, etc. For the guidance of the visitors from India, it is felt that the following information would be of considerable help.

HOTEL OR LIVING ACCOMMODATION.

From enquiries made in reasonable quarters, it has been ascertained that all accommodation in the London hotels has already been taken up for the period prior to and subsequent to the date of the Coronation. Huge waiting lists have been registered for such accommodation to cover possible cancellations. Agencies such as Messrs. Thomas Cook & Son, Ltd., and The American Express Company report that they are unable to accept requests for bookings in hotels in London itself round about that period. They offer accommodation in boarding houses and guest houses and in hotels up to 50 miles from London.
